

Fifty Years the Standard

THE LOCAL NEWS..... OF THE CITY AND COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. F. Weeks have gone to California for a visit.

J. S. Smith was in town today from the Jerome Canyon Copper company's camp.

Zalp Cameron left for home today after a day's visit in Prescott. His first since the big fire.

C. E. Jacobs was brought over from Kingman a few days ago charged with illegal voting.

Dr. Day, the weather observer, reports the rain for the twenty-four hours ending this morning at 3 o'clock at 1.1 inches.

J. H. Morrison has returned from San Jose, California, where he was called by the illness of his wife. The latter is recovering.

D. D. McDonald's new printing office plant has arrived in town and is to be located in the basement of the Burke. It will be known as the Herald and will be a weekly paper and of the "free lance" order.

The Prescott Stock company, presenting "A Noble Outcast" at the opera house next Wednesday night, will have on its specialty roll Miss Maud Hanna, our little favorite to the citizens of Prescott. Miss Hanna needs no further introduction.

Miss Norma Fernwald and Miss Maud Marsh are candidates for queen of the Eagle Carnival on Dec. 1. Both of these young ladies are as "pretty as pinkies," and no doubt there will be a generous polling of votes by their many admirers in this city.

W. S. Adams of the Jerome Mining News, is said to have "sluffed" off 1200 shares of good mining stock, $2500 cash, 25 Prescott subscriptions, and a great deal of property, that Hickey would be the profit. We are not sorry for W. S. and we don't give a dam.

Reports today are that the rain is general all over Arizona, and considerable damage is reported to rail and wagon road interests. Today's rain from Phoenix was over four hours late. This is the largest continuous rain ever to take place in Yavapai, and coming as it does at an unexpected time and out of season so far as any good is to follow, is more of a detriment to the country than of good. The weather bureau at Washington predicted what we are getting, and for once they were right.

The funeral of the late Dick O'Neill took place this afternoon from Logan's Undertaking Parlor, many friends of the deceased being in attendance. While the remains were being prepared for burial yesterday, his body was found to be everywhere thoroughly tattooed, and many quaint expressions were in letters along with original characters evidently designed by the deceased. One inscription and design that ornamented his breast in pale blue ink was that of "In Memory of My Mother" in center of a tombstone, the latter being the work of an artist, and was as true as life. Mr. O'Neill in youth was a sailor, and in voyages was a frequent visitor to the South Sea Islands, which probably accounts for the above. He was born in port of New Orleans on an English ship, his parents being English.

Quiet Wedding Last Evening.

When one lives for any length of time in Arizona and leaves, he is sure to return again. J. Roger Cate, one of the early Hassayampers of this section, who left here seventeen years ago, returned again on Wednesday evening to see his old Hassayamper friends. Mr. Cate was accompanied on the trip by a charming lady of Los Angeles, who he also resided in and in the presence of a few friends the couple were married last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Merritt in West Prescott, Ariz.

A. M. Gibbons performing the ceremony. The lady who will return to Los Angeles as Mrs. Cate, came here in Mrs. Nellie J. Masters. The bride is a business woman of Los Angeles, which is in charge of the J. H. Masters' text and evening establishment in that city.

The groom, as previously stated, was a former resident of Prescott, but for the past several years has been engaged in business in Los Angeles. At the conclusion of the ceremony last night which united them as man and wife they were the recipients of the hearty congratulations and well wishes of the guests present after which refreshments were served. They will remain in Prescott for about ten days or two weeks before returning to their home in Los Angeles.

A Card.
Having recently reopened my tailoring establishment, I wish to state a few facts to gentlemen who are fond of good and stylish clothes. I shall be my aim to carry in stock the very best up to date line of woolsens and trimmings of which I have just received a large variety including the world's famous "coronation" cloth which is all the rage now in fashionable circles. I wish to state further that I have taken during my absence a special course in the latest science of cutting, and my patrons can be assured to get strictly first class garments in every respect.

Respectfully,
Ed. Voigtlander, Merchant Tailor, Rooms 10 and 11 Union Block, Prescott, Arizona.

A Doubling Up.
James Weir of Boone, Iowa, is the father of eleven pair of twins, twenty-two children. It is said that the mother was partial to girls, while the father preferred boys. Nature satisfied them both, for at each birth came a boy and a girl. Weir's two oldest daughters are married to twin brothers. Within twelve hours of each other the four daughters gave birth to twins, a boy and a girl.
